FEDERAL LOW RENT PUBLIC HOUSING

Summary of Fund

The Federal Low Rent Public Housing program is a federally subsidized program that provides 5,407 rental housing units. Participants reside in dwelling units located statewide and receive ancillary services necessary to provide a decent, safe and sanitary living environment. In exchange for these services and an established schedule of utility allowances, the tenants are charged rental fees of up to 30% of their adjusted gross family income. The program criteria for participation utilizes a broad range of income limits based on family size and occupancy standards that have been established by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Preference is given to families who fall within various categories of need including (1) reside in substandard conditions, (2) pay more than 50% of their income for rent, and (3) are certified as being homeless. Admission to projects is limited to families earning up to 50% of the median income.

Current fiscal biennium activities

The Corporation will provide safe and sanitary living units for tenants residing in the Federal Low Rent Public Housing program. The quality of services provided to tenants shall be based on HUD's Public Housing Assessment System (PHAS). The assessment incorporates performance indicators that evaluates lease up rates, rent collections, work order response times, unit conditions, resident initiatives, financial performance and overall management effectiveness. Major renovations of units will continue with funding provided by HUD's Capital Fund Program.

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

Major issues facing the Corporation are systematic maintenance for dwelling units, compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), deconcentration of low-income public housing projects and improving safety for tenants. An assessment of the physical condition of dwelling units will be updated to determine a priority of units to be repaired or renovated. A preventive maintenance program and a schedule of extraordinary maintenance will be refocused to provide a systematic method for maintaining the units. Compliance with ADA will require an update of the transition plan and to seek funding for renovation of existing units. New units or modernized units will have to include ADA units in the master planning process. Safety issues will be addressed through development of a safety plan and organizing tenants to mobilize a neighborhood watch program or voluntary tenant patrols.

Expenditures

Actual expenditures for the year ending June 30, 2001 and expenditures budgeted for the fiscal year 2001-2002 are as follows:

Fiscal Year	Actual Expenditures	Budgeted Expenditures
FY 2000-01	$27,655,208
FY 2001-02		$23,578,763

Summary of Fund

The State Low-Income Housing program provides 1,170 rental housing units. The fund was created in 1947 to support the activities of the Hawaii Housing Authority in the development and administration of public housing. BED 225 - PRIVATE HOUSING DEVELOPMENT AND OWNERSHIP

HOMES REVOLVING FUND

Summary of fund

The Homes Revolving Fund (HRF) was established in 1988 to develop and implement affordable housing programs including the development of off-site and on-site improvements required for development, providing short term or interim construction loans, development and construction of housing, and advancing equity capital for the Rental Housing System administered by the Corporation. The fund, which was originally capitalized with $120 million of general fund monies, assists private developers in overcoming major barriers to housing development. Monies have been used for the following purposes:

Planning, design and construction of major on-site and off-site improvements required for development of three master planned communities.

Short-term or interim construction loans.

- * Development and construction of housing

In 1990, the Director of Finance was authorized to advance an additional $25 million from monies available in the general fund. To date, no portion of the $25 million has been advanced to the HRF.

On August 31, 1992, pursuant to Act 300, SLH 1992, $120 million of taxable general obligation bonds were issued in the name of the State to replenish the cash advanced from the general fund to HRF.

Act 14, Sp.SLH 1995, authorized the transfer of $30 million from HRF to the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. Act 15, Sp.SLH 1995, authorized the transfer of $34 million in retained earnings from HRF to the general fund. Act 95, SLH 1996 authorized the transfer of Village 6 at Kapolei and Village 3 at La'i'opua to the Department of Hawaiian Homes Lands to satisfy the requirements of section 6(1) of Act 14, Sp.SLH 1995.

Act 270, SLH 1997 authorized the transfer of $6 million on 7/1/97 and $6 million on 7/1/98 to the State General Fund.

Act 141, SLH 1998 authorized the transfer of $42.5 million on 7/1/98 to the State General Fund

The Corporation intends to use the monies from the fund

- 1 to continue to fund planning, design costs, and general maintenance in the Villages of Kapolei;
- 2 for the general maintenance of the Villages of La'iópua; and the Villages of Leiali'i until the ceded land lawsuit is favorably resolved.*

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs claimed that State has no authority to alienate the public land trust and sell ceded lands to third parties. The Office of Hawaiian Affairs also claimed the State did not comply with proper land valuation and conveyance procedures set by Acts 317 and 318, SLH 1992. The State will defend its right to alienate the public land trust and its compliance with Acts 317 and 318 at trial which commenced November 2001.

The following estimates are based as of June 30, 2001 and assume that HRF funds are available to fund the projected expenditures.

The following illustrates the total combined actual expenditures using HRF funds during the year ended June 30, 2001, and budgeted annual expenditures (subject to the availability of HRF funds and the Governor's approval) through the year ending June 30, 2006.

HAWAII DEVELOPMENT REVOLVING FUND

Summary of fund

The Hawaii Development Revolving Fund (HDRF) was established pursuant to Act 25, SLH 1968 to provide "seed money" loans, either before or after final subdivision approval, at an interest rate of six percent (6%) to cover planning, development, and initial costs, of low or moderate cost housing through government assistance programs. In 1983, legislative amendments limited use of this fund to nonprofit entities, and in 1992, the fund was again amended to provide low interest loans at interest rates up to six percent and grants. Act 280, SLH 1993 mandated the transfer of $250,000 to the General Fund.

Current fiscal biennium activities

None

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

With the 1992 legislative amendment allowing grants or loans with interest rates of less than six percent, it is anticipated that the demand for funding under this program will increase. Use of this fund can be combined with other financing sources to increase the feasibility of projects being developed by nonprofit entities.

Expenditures

At June 30, 2001, this fund consisted of $411,022 in cash, expenditures of $3,163. The projected expenditures for fiscal year 2001-02 are estimated at $2,900.

RENTAL ASSISTANCE REVOLVING FUND

Summary of fund

The Rental Assistance Revolving Fund was established in 1981 for the purpose of receiving monies from the State to support the Rental Assistance Program. The original purpose of the Rental Assistance Program was to provide subsidies to owners of newly constructed or rehabilitated affordable rental housing projects to lower the out-of-pocket rents paid by eligible tenants. The amount of rental assistance subsidy committed to a project on a per-unit basis is generally $175 to $250 per month. Prior to 1992, interest earnings on general fund appropriations were used to fund the rental subsidies.

In 1992, the Legislature restructured the Rental Assistance Program by allowing the use of principal and interest earnings to finance rental assistance subsidies (not just interest earnings on investments in general fund appropriations), provided that the Corporation use up to $25 million plus any bond proceeds to provide interim construction financing to:

- (1) qualified sponsors who are private nonprofit or profit entities or
- (2) the Corporation

for the development of affordable rental housing.

The amended program also authorizes the Director of Finance to guarantee the aggregate amount of assistance payments for the term of the rental assistance contract, up to an aggregate total of $100,000,000. Pursuant to such guarantee, the Corporation would continue to make rental payments to the owner in accordance with the approved rental assistance contract on behalf of the tenants in accordance with the approved subsidy.

Pursuant to Act 30, Sp.SLH 1995, the Legislature authorized the transfer of $3,200,000 from this fund to the Rental Housing Trust Fund. Also, Acts 30 and 31, Sp.SLH 1995, authorized the transfer of $1,439,000 for a program to assist Waialua Sugar workers.

Pursuant to Act 213, SLH 1996, the Legislature authorized the transfer of $13.5 million from this fund to the general fund.

Current fiscal biennium activities

To date, the Program has provided approximately $27 million in interim construction financing for 384 rental units. In October 2001, the HCDCH Board preliminarily approved $4 million in interim construction financing for the acquisition and rehabilitation of another 306 rental units.

The Program has provided approximately $27.0 million in interim construction financing for 384 rental units.

SINGLE FAMILY MORTGAGE PURCHASE REVENUE BOND FUND

Summary of fund

In 1979, the Hawaii State Legislature authorized the Hawaii Housing Authority to fund an innovative mortgage loan program for families of low and moderate income -- Hula Mae. In 1987, Act 337, SLH 1987, assigned the responsibility for the Hula Mae Program to the Corporation. Through the issuance of tax exempt revenue bonds, the Hula Mae Program provides eligible borrowers with mortgage loans at below market interest rates.

Since 1979, the Hawaii State Legislature has authorized the HFDC to issue, with the approval of the Governor, revenue bonds in an aggregate principal amount of $2.275 billion. Under the Single Family Program's open indenture, twenty-five series of bonds have been issued aggregating over $1.659 billion. The open indenture provides for the issuance of additional bonds to further the Single Family Program or to refund outstanding bonds.

Effective July 1, 1998 and pursuant to Act 350, SLH 1997, the Housing and Community Development Corporation of Hawaii (HCDCH) became the successor of HFDC.

Current fiscal biennium activities

The HCDCH is in the process of structuring a new Hula Mae bond issue and expects to issue bonds during fiscal year 2002.

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

The Corporation has the flexibility to issue bonds from time to time based on the needs of the mortgage lenders and developers. The exact amount of bonds to be issued during the two ensuing biennium is currently unknown, but will be based upon the demand for affordable mortgage money.

Expenditures

Actual expenditures during the year ending June 30, 2001 and expenditures budgeted for fiscal year 2001-02 are as follows:

Fiscal Year	Actual Expenditures	Budgeted Expenditures

HOUSING FINANCE REVOLVING FUND

Summary of fund

Funds on deposit in the Housing Finance Revolving Fund are used for long-term and special financing of the Corporation and for the payment of the necessary administrative expenses of the Corporation. Examples of programs contained with the Housing Finance Revolving Fund include the Mortgage Credit Certificate Program, the Loan Program for Kalapana Disaster Victims, the Kahana Valley Loan Program, and the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Program.

Mortgage Credit Certificate (MCC) Program

The purpose of the Mortgage Credit Certificate Program is to provide eligible borrowers with a direct tax credit against their federal income tax liability, making more income available to both qualify for mortgage loans and make monthly payments. The amount of the credit is equivalent to 20% of the annual interest paid on a mortgage loan. This means that 20% of the annual interest paid on a mortgage loan is a dollar for dollar credit, while the remaining 80% continues to qualify as an itemized tax deduction. Under the MCC Program, the Corporation has traded in approximately $80.4 million of Mortgage Revenue Bond (MRB) authority for just over $20.1 million of MCC authority.

Current fiscal biennium activities

As of June 30, 2001, the MCC Program assisted 524 families with their home purchases.

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

The Corporation has the flexibility to trade in MRB Authority for MCC Authority from time to time based on the demand for MCCs. The exact amount of MRB Authority to be traded in during the ensuing biennium is currently unknown, but will be based upon the demand for MCCs.

Kahana Valley Loan Program

Act 238, SLH 1988, appropriated $1,360,000 (only $1,346,400 was received) to the Corporation to provide low interest mortgage loans to the holders of Kahana Valley State Park residential leases. The maximum loan amount per lessee is $50,000. There are currently thirty-one families with Kahana Valley leases.

Current fiscal biennium activities

As of June 30, 2001, a total of twenty-five loans have been closed. Two loans are expected to close during fiscal year 2001. Four families have not applied for a loan with the HCDCH.

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

No new loans are expected to be made during the two ensuing biennium.

Low Income Housing Tax Credit Program

The Federal Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) Program has been a popular incentive program for private developers for the development and preservation of privately owned affordable rental housing. The tax credit is only available for projects with units rented to low-income occupants. In 1988, Hawaii established a similar program that allocates State tax credits equivalent to 30 percent of the federal credit.

Current fiscal biennium activities

There are currently 41 projects totaling 3,390 units that have been assisted under the federal and state low-income housing tax credit programs. 2,410 of these units are operational and 759 are under construction, and will be completed by the end of FY 2000, and 221 are in planning stage. In addition, in October 2001 the HCDCH Board of Directors approved four projects to receive Low Income Housing Tax Credits, which will result in the development or preservation of another 446 affordable rental units.

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

The permanent extension of the program enables the Corporation to allocate $2 million in federal tax credits and approximately $600,000 in state tax credits to projects on an annual basis. It is anticipated that approximately 150 to 200 units can be constructed each year with the use of tax credits.

decent, safe, affordable, and sanitary housing, with primary attention to low-income rental housing. HOME funds allocated to the State are on deposit in the Home Investment Trust Fund account, which is established in the United States Treasury and managed through HUD's Cash and Management Information System.

BED 231 RENTAL HOUSING TRUST FUND

Summary of fund

Act 308, SLH 1992 provided for the creation of the Rental Housing Trust Fund. The fund was established to assist low-income families and individuals, including the homeless and special need groups, in obtaining affordable rental housing. The fund provides loans or grants for the development, predevelopment, construction, acquisition, preservation and substantial rehabilitation of rental housing units. Prior to July 1, 1998, the Fund was under the authority of the Rental Housing Trust Fund Commission and for administrative purposes placed under the State of Hawaii, Department of Budget and Finance. Act 350, SLH 1997, effective July 1, 1998 consolidated the functions of the Housing Finance and Development Corporation, the Hawaii Housing Authority and the Rental Housing Trust Fund under the Housing and Community Development Corporation of Hawaii (HCDCH). The HCDCH is administratively attached to the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism.

Current fiscal biennium activities

During Fiscal Year 2000-2001, five (5) Project Award applications with a total request of $12.4 million were received. Of the five applications, Project Awards totaling $10,850,000 were approved, in the FY 2001-2002, for four (4) projects to create or rehabilitate 446 units. Aggregate development costs for the four projects total approximately $39.6 million. Overall, the Rental Housing Trust Fund has approved more than $51.9 million for 29 projects to create or preserve 2,169 affordable rental units.

In addition to Project Awards, Capacity Building Grants are provided to foster the development of nonprofit organizations as housing providers. During fiscal year 2000-2001, $24,892 was awarded to one (1) nonprofit organization.

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

The demand for funds from the Rental Housing Trust Fund is high, and is expected to increase as other State resources are eliminated or depleted. The Program received approximately $1.1 million during Fiscal Year 2000-2001, and reverted back to receiving 25% of the conveyance tax beginning July 1, 2001. (For fiscal years 1999, 2000, and 2001 the RHTF received 12.5% of the conveyance tax.) During the 2001 Legislative session, the RHTF received authorization to issue bonds up to $30 million dollars, using the conveyance tax income to pay down the debt service. Issuance of the bonds are anticipated in connection with the 2002 funding round.

During Fiscal Year 2001-02, there will be one funding round for each of the three programs; it is anticipated that requests for rental housing trust funds will exceed the amount available.

BED 807 – TEACHERS' HOUSING REVOLVING FUND

Summary of Fund

The Teachers' Housing Program was created in 1969 to support the development and administration of housing for teachers of the Department of Education. Teacher housing provides housing for teachers in remote rural areas at a reasonable cost. Act 350, SLH 1997, transferred the program from the Hawaii Housing Authority to the Housing and Community Development Corporation of Hawaii to consolidate all state housing functions.

Current fiscal biennium activities

The Corporation will continue to provide safe and decent housing for teachers in rural areas. Due to the presence of lead-based paint in three teacher cottages, the units will be rehabilitated or replaced with new units.

Projected activities for the two ensuing biennium

A declining housing demand over the last 3 to 5 years, physical deterioration and the presence of lead-based paint in the older structures has prompted the Corporation to deprogram units. The deprogramming will reduce program-operating expenses over the long term. Environmental regulations governing the disposal of lead-based paint material has increased demolition costs that will require additional funding to abate or remove the material. Units will also have to be modified to meet the Americans with Disabilities Act standards.
